Becomes Owner Of Electric Theatre

W. J. ALDINGER PURCHASES INTEREST OF HIS PARTNER IN POPULAR AMUSEMENT PLACE.

A deal was consummated yesterday whereby W. J. Aldinger becomes the sole owner of the Electric Theater located in the room formerly occupied by the postoffice. Since the business was started here some time ago A. A. McTighe has been a half owner of the concern, and yesterday he sold his part of the business of Mr. Aldinger. The amount of money involved in the deal was not given out. Mr. Aldinger is well known to all local amusement seekers and the Electric Theater is one of the most popular in the city. Mr. Aldinger plans to run the business along the same lines as it has since it started.

Owing to misunderstanding yesterday by some of the attaches of the theater, many people at one show in the afternoon were not given the benefit of the music, but this was an oversight on the part of one of the members of the management. Mr. A. L. Taylor, a vocalist, is an extra feature of the programme at the Electric Theater this week. This is given in addition to the regular illustrated songs.

Mr. L. C. Wyer

WILL OPEN REAL ESTATE OFFICE IN CITIZENS' DOLLAR BANK BUILDING.

The latest, and one of the most promising business enterprises to be launched in Fairmont, is that at the head of which is Mr. L. C. Wyer, well and favorably known to local people as one of the business hustlers of Marion county. Some time ago Mr. Wyer was a member of the firm of Wyer & Mason, but this firm dissolving by mutual consent, Mr. Wyer has since been seeking suitable quarters in which to continue the business on his own account. These he recently secured, over the Citizens' Dollar Savings Bank of Fairmont, in the form of a suite of offices, particularly well adapted to the requirements of the business in which Mr. Wyer is engaged, viz., real estate and coal, oil and timber lands. The rooms are handsomely fitted up and furnished with a degree of quiet elegance that comports well with Mr. Wyer's ideas of the equipment of a business home. Here he is prepared to meet friends, acquaintances, and all others who are interested in the purchase, sale, lease, rental or optioning of the many kinds of properties he has listed.

Mr. L. C. Wyer has gained an enviable reputation in the ranks of business men and traders of this section as one of the best informed and most far-sighted real estate dealers and brokers in coal lands in this section of West Virginia, and those who know him best predict for him a most successful career.
